YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or any thing like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES TAOMPSON.

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eigth, below Coates Street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The Genuine have the signature of C. M. JACKSON on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

THE NOMINATIONS.

Great Mass Meetings Inside and Outside of Tammany Hall.

Magnificent Reception of their Candidates by the People.

Speeches of Acceptance by Governor Seymour and General Blair.

Last Friday evening a mass meeting, or rather, two mass meetings were held at Tammany Hall to present formally to the Hon. Horatio Seymour, of New York State, and Gen. Frank P. Blair, of Missouri, the nominations of the National Democratic Convention to the high offices of President and Vice President of the United States, and to ratify said nominations by the voice of the people. The meeting was one of the grandest of the grand scenes witnessed upon this continent since its discovery by Christopher Columbus; the reception given to the candidates of the Democracy—or let us say rather the people—of these United States, was an ovation of which they and their descendants may well be proud and boast till the crack of doom. Never before in the history of our politics was a ratification meeting held which was so truly, so unmistakably a ratification meeting. The country, through all its broad extent, had that morning, in countless sheets, flung off from lightning presses in numberless telegrams, sent thrilling and quivering, as if with joy, over the glad wires, announced its ratification of the noble choice of its trusted delegates in solemn council assembled. And now the people, not only of the Empire City and the Empire State, but of every State and Territory and city in the land, there represented by some of their worthy citizens, met in the place where the glorious deed had been done, the happy choice made, to give palpable and enthusiastic expression to that ratification.

Tammany Hall wore an aspect precisely such as it wore when the Convention was deliberating within its walls, not one of its tasteful decorations having been removed. Outside, at the large window, to the left of the door, a large platform was erected, and was hung with the national ensign, while across the street were hung numerous lanterns to give at once light and lightness to the spectacle. The meeting was announced for 8 o'clock, but long before that hour the great Hall was filled to its utmost capacity, and a scene was presented on the floor and in the galleries like that which has so often been described during the past few days. On the outside the people who could not get in gathered in the street in front of the stand, and before the hour of meeting a dense throng extended from one side of the street to the other, and from the Third avenue far up to the Fourth avenue. At about eight o'clock fireworks, supplied by J. G. & J. Edge, and managed by A. G. Greene, began to illuminate the heavens and the vast assemblage below them. If the object of these was to draw a crowd together it was a ridiculously unnecessary expedient; if the object was to give the throng something to employ their eyes and keep them from impatience while standing waiting for the speeches, it was a wise one. Such an assemblage was never before witnessed here at a public meeting. The very lamp-posts and the posts of the great arch were occupied by men and boys, and throughout the evening, from 6 to 12, street-cars were in the midst of the jamble unable to move one way or the other.

Some time after eight o'clock Governor Seymour and General Blair appeared in one of the reception rooms of the Tammany building, which they had reached quietly by the back entrance. After a few minutes' consultation the committee of one from each State and Territory, appointed by the Convention to make the formal tender of the nominations, proceeded to the platform of the hall, escorting the two candidates. There the two latter remained unperceived in the recess at the back of the platform, while the committee took seats upon it, together with Messrs. August Belmont, Augustus Shell, Edw. Croswin, Senator Murphy, and other distinguished gentlemen.

Mr. August Belmont came forward and said:

GENTLEMEN:—I have to propose to you as President of this meeting Hon. Samuel J. Tilden, of New York. (cheers.)

Mr Tilden, on coming forward, said:

Speech of Hon. S. J. Tilden.

FELLOW-CITIZENS: I congratulate you on this spontaneous assemblage of the Democracy of our State. (Applause.) I did not myself know of this meeting until a few hours ago. There does not seem to be any organization for the purpose of carrying it on and, therefore, I have been invited to accept the duty of presiding on this occasion. As I came through the hall I saw a vast heap of people, many times more than are here assembled. (Applause.) I feel how strangely this meeting in here and the meeting outside indicate the spontaneous uprising of the masses of the people, to increase the liberties of the people. (Cheers.) For my part I have not entertained any gloomy apprehensions on the result of the contest on which we are about entering. (Applause.) I believe in God and in the people. I believe that we are destined to preserve and restore this framework of American constitutional government. [Applause.] That we are to refound that government on the liberties of the people. [Applause.] And that we are to restore in every part of this continent over which we exercise dominion, local self-government to every integral portion of the American people. [Cheers.] You know, my fellow-citizens of New York, that I am not very sanguine in the anticipations which I form of political results; but I volunteer to predict, and I call upon our adversaries to record that prediction, that if the Democratic party gather, as I believe they will gather, to this contest, they will bear our standard to a certain and assured victory. [Applause.] On the whole, I believe that we have made the strongest and the best nomination which we could make, after as much deliberation as we have had [Cheers.] I am willing, myself, to notify all Conservatives to join with us in the movement to rescue our country. I am willing to accept the vager of battle that is given us. [Cheers.] I am willing, under the standards whom we have chosen, to go forward and to place upon the chance of the day the destinies of the Democratic party, as also the destinies of our country and of mankind. [Cheers.] Aye, fellow-citizens, I say of mankind, because if this beautiful and splendid specimen of constitutional government that our fathers regarded as an experiment—that we afterwards made perfect—if it shall fail now, there is no hope for mankind of any effective participation of the public masses in their own government. [Applause.] It will not fail—it cannot fail; and this contest in which we are now engaging will give us, I verily believe, a political revolution as great and as momentous in its results as that political revolution that occurred here, in this city of New York, which brought Thomas Jefferson into the Presidential chair in 1801, and founded the Democratic party that prosperously governed the country for well-nigh sixty years. [Great applause.] It is our mission to restore its principles in the administration of the Government, to restore a liberal policy in the conducting of affairs, and to give to our people everywhere the assurance of complete peace after war is over; of pacification through every part of our beloved land; of local self-government, of individual rights and individual safety, of the re-establishment of the great guarantees of personal freedom, constitutional rights everywhere upon this cotinent. [Prolonged cheering.] Fellow-citizens, I now present to you Gen. Morgan, of Ohio, the Chairman of the Committee appointed by the National Convention to tender to Horatio Seymour the nomination for President of the United States. And I present to you at the same time Horatio Seymour.

Mr. Tilden would have added a few words to round up his sentence, but the announcement of the name of Seymour and his appearance upon the front platform at the same time, was the signal for the whole body of people in the hall and galleries to rise to their feet and wave their hats, and their canes, and their parasols, while they cheered and cheered in one wild enthusiastic, indescribable uproar, exhibiting a scene only equalled by that which took place in the same room when the nomination of Governor Seymour became known on Thursday. The sound was exciting, inspiring, almost terrific; now it rolled forth like a peal of thunder over the mountains and valleys of an Alpine solitude · now it partially died away into a reverberating echo, and anon it broke forth again as if a volcano had burst forth, or an earthquake was about to rock the earth to its centre. This extraordinary scene continued for several minutes, then some one called for three cheers, and cheer after cheer, and then three more and then another and another, and another was given, till the number reached more than a dozen. All this time Mr. Seymour stood his dignified and noble self, yet seeming half abashed and more than half affected with emotion at the warmth of his reception, and almost as if he would have to retire till the people could control themselves. Order was, however, at last restored, and General Morgan then addressed Governor Seymour in the following words:

Speech of General Morgan.

Governor Seymour—On behalf of the committee appointed for that purpose, I have the pleasure, sir, of presenting to you a communication announcing your unanimous nomination as the candidate for the office of the President of the United States, by the National Democratic Convention; and on behalf, sir, of the Conservative and Democratic people of the States whom we have the honor to represent, we here pledge their united and cordial efforts in securing relief to the country from the thraldom which now possesses it, and in placing you, sir, as the Chief Magistrate of the United States, in the Executive chair.

Tremendous cheering followed this address. When this had subsided, Governor Seymour replied as follows:

Speech of Gov. Seymour.

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Committee

I thank you for the courteous terms in which you have communicated to me the action of the Democratic National Convention. [Cheers.] I have no words adequate to express my gratitude for the good-will and kindness which that body has shown to me. Its nomination was unsought, and unexpected. It was my ambition to take an active part, from which I am now excluded, in the great struggle going on for the restoration of good government, of peace and prosperity to our country. (Great cheering.) But I have been caught up by the whelming tide that is bearing us on to a great political change, and I find myself unable to resist its pressure. [Loud cheers.] You have also given to me a copy of the resolutions put forth by the Convention, showing its position upon all the great questions which now agitate the country. As the presiding officer of that Convention, I am familiar with their scope and import, and as one of its members I am a party to their terms; they are in accord with my views, and I stand upon them in the contest upon which we are now entering; and I shall strive to carry them out in future wherever I may be placed, in public or private life. [Cheers.] I congratulate you, and all conservative men, who seek to restore order, peace, prosperity, and good government to our land, upon the evidences everywhere shown, that we are to triumph at the next election. [Prolonged cheering.] Those who are politically opposed to us flattered themselves there would be discord in our councils; they mistook the uncertainties of our views as to the best methods of carrying out our purposes for difference of opinion with regard to those purposes. They mistook an intense anxiety to do no act which should not be wise and judicious for a spirit of discord, but during the lengthened proceedings and earnest discussions of the Convention there has prevailed an entire harmony of intercourse, a patient forbearance, and a selfsacrificing spirit, which are the sure tokens of a coming victory. Accept for yourselves, gentlemen, my wishes for your future welfare and happiness. [Cheers.] In a few days I will answer the communication you have just handed me by letter, as is the customary form. [Tremendous and long-continued cheering.]

Mr. Tilden—I have now the honor to present to this meeting, Major-General Francis P. Blair, Jr.

The appearance of General Blair was the signal for renewed enthusiasm, little if at all inferior to that which had greeted Governor Seymour, and which was continued at such length that the General became somewhat fatigued while waiting for a chance to speak. At length General Morgan took advantage of temporary quiet to speak as follows:

Gen. Morgan Tenders the Nomination to Gen. Blair.

GENERAL BLAIR: The committee appointed by the Convention have made it my pleasing duty, sir, to announce your unanimous nomination as the Democratic candidate for Vice President of the United States—[applause]—and in tendering to you sir, this nomination, I feel sure that it will not only be hailed with acclamation by your fellow citizens througout the United States, but by thousands of your gallant comrades on many a well-fought field—[applause]—and who will once again rally to the stars and stripes and the defence of free institutions. [Applause].

Major General Francis P. Blair, Jr., Accepts the Nomination for Vice President.

General Blair, after the tumultuous applause which greeted him had subsided said: Mr Chairman—I accept the platform of resolutions passed by the late Democratic Convention, and I accept their nomination—(great cheering)—with feelings of profound gratitude, and, sir, I thank you for the very kind manner in which you have already conveyed to me the decision of the Democratic Convention. I accept the nomination with the conviction that your nomination for the Presidency is one which will carry us to certain victory—(applause) and because I believe that the nomination is the most proper nomination that could be made by the Democratic party. (Applause.) The contest which we wage is for the restoration of constitutional government—(cheers)—and it is proper that we should make this contest under the lead of one who has given his life to the maintenance of constitutional government. (Applause.) We are to make the contest for the restoration of those great principles of government which belong to our race. [Great Applause.) And my fellow citizens, it is most proper that we should select for our leader a man not from military llfe, but one who devoted himself to civil pursuits, who has given himself to the study and the understanding of the Constitution and its maintenance with all the force of reason and judgment. [Applause.] My fellow citizens, I have said that the contest before us was one of the restoration of our government, it is also one for the restoration of our race. [Appplause, long, continued.] It is to prevent the people of our race from being exiled from their homes—[cheers,]—exiled from the government which they formed and created for themselves and their children, and to prevent them from being driven out of the country or troden under foot by an inferior and semi-barbarous race. [Applause.] In this country we shall have the sympathy of every man who is worthy to belong to the white race. [Applause.] What civilized people on earth would refuse to associate with themselves in all the rights and honors and dignity of their country such men as Lee and Johnson? What civilized country on earth would fail to do honor to those who fighting for an erroneous cause, yet distinguished themselves by gallantry in that service? [Applause.] In that contest for which they sought to be disfranchised and to be exiled from their homes—in that contest they have proved themselves worthy to be our peers. [Applause.] My fellow citizens, it is not my purpose to make any long address—[cries of "go on"]—but simply to express my gratitude for the great and distinguished honor which has been conferred upon me.

A voice—"You are worthy of it."

General Blair—And from my heart to reiterate the words of thanks that fell from my lips when I arose.

[Renewed cheering, during which General Blar retired.]

The President then introduced General Custer, who made an eloquent speech. He was followed by General Clay Smith, of Kentucky, and General Morgan of Ohio, both of whom spoke for the soldier of the West.

The Outside Meeting.

About the same time that the proceedings within the hall were commenced the meeting outside was called to order by Senator Thomas H. Creamer, who took the chair to preside. After a few introductory words he introduced Colonel Carter, of North Carolina, who made an excellent address, reciting the grievances of the Sotuh appealing to the North to be just if not generous, and expressing his confidence in the integrity and fairness of the Democratic party. S. S. Case followed, and while he was speaking, Mr. Seymour, who had finished his address in the hall above, made his appearance.

Mr. Creamer, the Chairman, then introduced Gov. Seymour, amid an uproar and tumult of cheers that drowned all other voices throughout Fourteenth street, from Third to Fourth avenues.

Governor Seymour and General Blair Outside.

Governor Seymour stepping upon highest board at the front of the platform spoke as follows:

Fellow citizens—I am unable with my broken voice and exhausted frame to do more than return you my sincere thanks for the compliment which you now pay me. May God bless you, and may he bless our country, and may he give us in the pending contest that triumph which will tend to secure constitutional law, good order, peace and prosperity to our land. I can say no more, but to bid you good night, and once more thank you for your kindness to me. [Immense cheering.]

Shortly afterwards, General Blair made his appearance, and the shining of the lesser lights was interrupted for for a little while. Mr. Creamer introduced him to the audience amid deafening cheers, and he spoke as follows:

General Blair said: Gentlemen—I return you my heartfelt thanks for the kindness with which you have received me here this evening. I value, my fellow-citizens, this unbounded enthusiasm, not because I consider it any personal compliment to myself, but because I see in it what no man can mistake—that the people of this country have aroused themselves, and intend to take back their government in their own hands [applause], that they intend to redeem themselves [applause] from the rule (a voice "misrule") of this dynasty that has disgraced and degraded the country. [Great cheering and cries of "good, good."] American citizens which have been taken away from them by the military power of the South [applause], and the rights of American citizens in foreign lands as well. (Enthusiastic cheering.) My fellow-citizens, the Radicals are now in power (groans and hisses.) I wish I could groan as loud as all of you.—[Laughter.] They have sought, fellow citizens, to make a new Ireland of America [Groans]. I know fellow citizens, that it is impossible for me to speak so as to be heard in this immense audience. [Cries of "Go on."] I know that standing in such a dense mass as you are now standing in, is not conducive to comfort, and that it will be better for me to dessist. [Cries of go on.] I therefore again, fellow citizens, return you my heartfelt thanks for your kindness, and beseech you to make your assault upon the Radicals this fall with the same serried ranks as I now see here assembled before me. I take my seat with the conviction that victory is sure. [Applause, long and loud, during which General Blair retired.]

The Hon. John J. Rogers, General William S. Miller, of Pennsylvania; General Thomas L. Price, of Missouri, Governor Green Clay Smith, and other gentlemen spoke to the audience till a late hour, when the immense meet broke up, after indulging their feelings in a few more rousing cheers for the candidates.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC AND CONSERVATIVE SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' PLATFORM.

First. Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second. Amnesty for all past political offenders, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third. Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapid as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, be paid in the lawful money of the United States. (Thunders of applause.)

Fourth. Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including the government bonds, and other public securities. (Renewed cheering, and cries of "read it again.")

Fifth. One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder. (Great cheering and cries of "Read it again.") The fifth resolution was again read, and again cheered.

Sixth. Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedman's Bureau [great cheering], and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system, and discontinuance of inquisitorial assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace, and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh. Reform of abuses in the administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the restoration of rightful authority to, and the independence of, the executive and judicial departments of the government; the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth. Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance, and the claims of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crimes committed beyond their jurisdiction. (Applause.)

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career.

After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintanance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy. It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus—that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures, and arrests, and military trials, and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American Capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would now dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunals, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies, merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of false and partisan charges preferred against the President.—Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the government are rocking on their backs, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet as a subjected and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjections to the British crown the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and if sanctioned by the people, will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a Federal Union of coequal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so-called) of Congress, as such, are usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void.

That our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson [applause] in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard.—[Great applause.]

Upon this platform the Democratic party appeal to every patriot, including all the Conservative element, and all who desire to support the Constitution and restore the Union, forgetting all past differences of opinion, to unite with us in the present great struggle for the liberties of the people, and that to all such, to whatever party they may have heretofore belonged, we extend the right hand of fellowship, and hail all such co-operations with us as friends and brethren. [Applause.]

ADDRESS OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE.

DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE ROOMS. }
CLEARFIELD, Pa., July 14, 1868. }

To the people of Pennsylvania:

The political contest just entered into is laden with grave results to your business and to yourselves.

The Radical party asks a renewal of its power and a continuance of its misrule.

Defeated in every recent election, it now disguises its principles and trusts for success to the military prestige of an available candidate.

It offers to Grant the shadow of power, as a price for securing the reality to Congress.

Its success will bring you continued misgovernment by a Radical Congress, the control of every department of the government by Radical domination and the perpetuation of its iniquities, its prostration of your business interests.

It came into existence to benefit the negro; its devotions to his interests gave us four years of war, grinding taxation and three thousand millions of debt; its determination to place the negro over the white man has for more than three years kept society shattered, commerce paralyzed, industry prostrated, the national credit below par and the Union divided.

It has governed us for near eight years; the history of its first administration is written in four years of blood and recorded in an enormous national debt; the history of its second administration is near four years of peace, with absolute power, and a Union not restored, a government of the sword, business destroyed, taxation crushing the energies of the people and the negro vested with the balance of power.

Its end and aim is the preservation of Radical power through the votes of negroes and to this will be sacrificed your material interests, and, if necessary, your personal rights and form of government.

Military rule oppresses the nation and eats out the substance of the people. It is fit that Grant should lead the party that maintains that rule, for his laurels were gathered by the sword alone.

The Democratic party, placing itself upon the Constitution, pledges itself to strict obedience thereto, to the maintenance of the government created thereby, to the supremacy of law, to a reform of abuses, to economy in administration, to equal taxation, and to justice to all.

It antagonizes and denounces that infamous policy which, during more than three years of peace, has over taxed the people, has governed by the sword and has destroyed the credit of the nation.

Its policy is one of thoughtful foresight, of cautious statesmanship; it seeks no new path; but by the line of the written law, in the light of experience, it will guide the Republic back to the highway of progress and prosperity, and will restore to it national credit and fame.

It presents to you with pride its candidate for the Presidency: Horatio Seymour, of New York, a statesman and an honest man. Capable and pure, possessed of large experience and gifted with the rarest qualities of the head and of the heart, strong in intellect, sound in judgment and prompt in action, none more competent to lead us back to the haven of law and order.

Pennsylvania owes him a debt of gratitude for his prompt aid when her border was attacked.

The issues are before you; they are, The statesman against the mere soldier; intellect against force; the law against the sword.

It is for you to determine which of these will best suit our present unhappy condition.

By order of the Democratic State Committee.

WILLIAM A. WALLACE,
Chairman.

A FEW WORDS WITH OUR SOLDIER CITIZENS.

It is a trick of the Radical politicians to endeavor to appeal to prejudice instead of reason, to hate, instead of love. They call upon the people of the North to revive the strife and bitterness of the war and to rekindle the feud between the North and the South which fell to ashes with the surrender of the Southern armies. As a part of this trick, they ask the soldier citizen to vote for Gen. Grant, because of his services during the war. By this means they hope to screen from observation the hideous record they have made during the past three years, to hide the fact that they have forced Negro Suffrage, nay, NEGRO DOMINATION, upon ten States of the Union, to conceal the fact that they are keeping up a Standing Army of 50,000 men to enforce their Negro policy at a cost of one hundred millions per annum, to cover from sight the fact that they are maintaining the Negroes of the South in idleness, through the agency of the Freedmen's Bureau, in order to use them as voting machines, at an expense of millions annually, to blind the people to the fact that since the close of the war, TWENTY-TWO HUNDRED MILLIONS of dollars have been collected in taxes and raised in loans, and yet the public debt, instead of decreasing has increased, and to cause men to forget the fact that they have conspired to overthrow the Supreme Court and to usurp the Presidential office by an unwarranted impeachment. To enable them to perform this trick, Grant has consented to become their tool. He accepts the platform made for him at Chicago, which pledges him to maintain NEGRO SUFFRAGE and NEGRO RULE in the ten States in which it has been established. He is no longer Grant fighting for the Union and the Constitution, but Grant, the candidate of a party which has placed the heel of the Negro upon the neck of the White Man; the candidate of a party which has, in the Senate of the United States, REJECTED OVER TWO THOUSAND OF THE BRAVEST AND BEST SOLDIERS that ever drew blade, to make room for scoundrels like the notorious Callicott, who are now expiating their crimes in the penitentiaries of the country; the candidate of a party which taxes the soldier who received but $13 per month and a paltry bounty, in greenbacks, in order to pay the bloated, aristocratic, nabob Bondholder his interest in gold.

And who is Grant? Who made him what he is? Who gave him his reputation as a general? The hundreds of thousands of common soldiers whose bones lie bleaching in wilderness, on rock and in ravine, the legless and armless heroes who bled upon the gory field, the brave survivors to whom the appeal of hatred and revenge now comes from the Radical Demagogues, these put the three stars upon the shoulders of Ulysses. You, soldier citizens, you and your dead and maimed comrades, made Grant what he is. You gave him success. His generalship consisted in hurling you recklessly against the fortifications of the enemy. Being in favor with Stanton, he knew that if you were slain, two recruits would fill your place. Did he care for your life? Did he, by skillful manoeuvres, strive to save his army from the necessity of charges like that at Cold Harbor, or Fort Hell? No, he had chosen "a line," and on that he "would fight it out," though he had in the end to take McClellan's route, which he could have done without the losses at the Wilderness, Mine Run, Spottsylvania, Cold Harbor, and the numerous fruitless battle-fields on "that line."

What claim, then, has Grant upon your support? Have not you who risked your lives to place those three stars upon his shoulders and those twenty thousand dollars per annum in his pocket, greater claims upon him than he possibly can have upon you? He is no statesman, all admit. He is in the hands of WASHBURNE, the most contemptible of Radical small beer politicians. Shall, then, the miserable appeal to your passions, to hate and vengeance, mislead you into the support of one whom you owe nothing, and who all must admit, is incompetent? It cannot be. You fought for the Union, a Union of peace, and love, not of malice, anger and hate. You fought to bring back rebels, and now the appeal is made to you to spurn them and refuse to take them back. Can you not say with the great, the noble-hearted, the generous and forgiving Democracy, as you take the erring Southerner by the hand, and with him pledge fealty to the Union, eternal and irrevocable, "Go, brother, sin no more?"

GRUEL FOR WEAK STOMACHS.

Stanton Endorses Seymour.

Lincoln Thanks Him for His Services When Pennsylvania was Invaded.

The Radicals have raised their old cry of "copperhead" against the Union Democrat, Horatio Seymour, and the dashing Union General, Frank Blair. This was to be expected, for it is their only stock in trade. They were ready to raise the same cry against Gen. Hancock or any body else who might receive the Democratic nomination. They had already started the lie that Hancock rode in the same carriage with Jeff. Davis, when in New Orleans. They think they can nauseate some weak stomachs by this filthy dose of "copperhead!" "copperhead!" As an antidote to this we give, from the record, the following:

WASHINGTON, June 15, 1863
To his Excellency, Gov. Seymour:
The movements of the rebel forces in Virginia are now sufficiently developed to show that General Lee, with his whole army, is moving forward to invade the States of Maryland and Pennsylvania, and other States.
The President, to repel the invasion promptly, has called upon Ohio, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Western Pennsylvania, for one hundred thousand militia, for six months, unless sooner discharged. It is important to have the largest possible force in the least possible time, and if other States would furnish militia for a short time, to be credited in the draft, it would greatly advance the object. Will you please inform me immediately if, in answer to a special call of the President, you can raise and forward say twenty thousand militia as volunteers, without bounty, to be credited in the draft of your State, or what number you can possibly raise?
EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

WASHINGTON, June 15, 1863.
GOVERNOR SEYMOUR:
The President desires me to return his thanks with those of this Department, for your prompt response. A strong movement of your city regiments to Philadelphia would be a very encouraging movement, and do great good in giving strength in that State.
EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

WASHINGTON, June 19, 1863.
To Adjutant General Sprague:
The President directs me to return his thanks to his Excellency Governor Seymour, and his staff, for their energetic and prompt action. Whether any further force is likely to be required will be communicated to you tomorrow, by which time it is expected the movements of the enemy will be more fully developed.
EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

WAR DEPARTMENT, }
WASHINGTON, June 27, 1863. }
DEAR SIR—I cannot forbear expressing to you the deep obligation I feel for the prompt and candid support you have given to the Government in the present emergency. The energy, activity and patriotism you have exhibited I may be permitted personally and officially to acknowledge, without arrogating any personal claims on my part to such service, or to any service whatever.
I shall be happy always to be esteemed your friend,
EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.
His Excellency, Horatio Seymour.

TAX THE BONDS.

Upwards of two thousand millions of dollars of property in U. S. Bonds are untaxed, the interest upon which is paid in gold out of taxes upon other property and the industry of the people. At least five hundred millions of this property is held by British and other foreign capitalists. The Democratic platform proposes to tax those bonds as other property is taxed. Is not this right? Is it not fair? Nay, is it not necessary in order to assist in the payment of the public debt? The Radical party exempt the British bondholder, and make the farmer, the merchant, the mechanic and the laborer pay taxes out of which the bondholder is paid his interest in gold. Let every man, Democrat and Republican, vow that he will vote for no candidate who will not pledge himself in favor of taxing the bonds and paying off the public debt as speedily as praticable, in the lawful currency of the country.

THE London journals are all for Grant, and predict his election. During the Rebellion they were for the Confederacy and predicted its success. Then they were for Southern rebels who were trying to divide the Union, now they are for Northern rebels who are doing all in their power to destroy it.

ALL who bow the knee to the Baal of Radicalism are at once "reconstructed" and made truly "loil." All who refuse to do this, are disfranchised "rebels." "Let us have peace," says Grant.

"Let us have peace," says Grant, "War to the knife on all who wont vote our ticket," cry his friends.

A PRECIOUS LOT.

U. S. Grant is the man who, in cold blood, demanded of the War Department that no exchange of prisoners should be made, when thousands of the bravest and best of our brothers and friends were suffering and dying in Southern prisons. It is eminently fit that he should be supported by Horace Greely, the bail of Jefferson Davis, by Joe Brown, of Gorgia, the founder of the Andersonville prison, by Ben. Butler the man who assisted in preventing an exchange, by Stanton, who declared that he would not exchange healthy rebels for the skeletons of Union soldiers, by W. W. Holden, who offered a reward to any man who would assassinate Abraham Lincoln, by John A. Logan, who tried to raise a regiment in Southern Illinois for service in the rebellion, but failing sold himself for a pair of epaulettes, by Bingham, denominated by Butler the murderer of an innocent woman, and by all the carpet-baggers and negroes who are now reaping the fruits of the sufferings and sacrifices of the soldiers of the Union. Grant and his supporters are a precious lot, truly. How their record appeals to the support of soldier citizens! It is positively irresistible.

THE REGISTRY AND DESERTER LAWS.

We have neglected to inform our readers that the Supreme court has declared both the Registry and the Deserter law unconstitutional and of no effect. These spawns of Radicalism have been wiped from our statute books by the highest tribunal of our State. All honor to our independent judiciary!

As gold goes up the bondholder makes money, and the laborer loses. Tax the bonds, put greenbacks and gold on a par, and the bondholder and the plowholders will be treated alike. Is not this fair?

THERE is some trouble in Franklin county on the Congressional question, and it is rumored that the ubiquitous Johnny has gone on a pilgrimage thither to fix things up.

HORACE GREELY calls the soldiers who assembled in New York city "army worms." He was too cowardly to say so while they were in session there.

BEN WADE says that Grant wont talk anything but "horse." In November Grant will find himself hors du combat.

THE English journals have taken a stand for Grant and the bond-holders. A sure indication that Seymour will be triumphantly elected.

FIGURING UP THE CHANCES.

Mr. Greeley, of the Tribune, has indulged in a little figuring for the edification of his friends, which he has herewith given:

Mr. Lincoln had over 400,000 plurality, with nearly all the electoral votes, in 1864; yet mark how small a change in the popular vote would have defeated him! He carried

		Electors
Connecticut by	2,406 majority	6
Indiana by	20,189 majority	13
Maryland by	7,414 majority	7
Nevada by	3,235 majority	3
N. Hampshire by	3,529 majority	5
New York by	6,749 majority	33
Oregon by	1,431 majority	3
Pennsylvania by	20,075 majority	26
Rhode Island by	5,631 majority	4
Total, 9 States,	70,655 majority	100

Add these to the voters of New Jersey, Delaware, and Kentuckey—21, and he would have had 121; leaving to Mr. Lincoln but 114.

Thus a change of less than 36,000 in over 4,000,000 votes would have elected McClellan over Lincoln, and changed our whole subsequent history.

Since that time matters have changed a trifle. Connecticut has gone Democratic by about 1,700 majority; Maryland by 40,000; Nevada by 500; New York by 60,000; Oregon by 1,500, and Pennsylvania by 1,200, leaving the Radicals only three States out of the nine, and only twenty-two out of the one hundred Lincoln electoral votes. This is doing pretty well; but we are capable of doing still better.

The World has been figuring and speculating a little also. Here is what it has to say:

States for Seymour and Blair.

In canvassing the question with the delegates to the convention since the nomination was made, the following States are put down as sure for Seymour and Blair:

Connecticut	6
New York	33
New Jersey	7
Pennsylvania	26
Ohio	21
Indiana	13
Oregon	3
Nevada	3
California	5
Delaware	3
Kentucky	11
Missouri	11
Kansas	3
Wisconsin	8
Maryland	7
Total	160

One hundred and fifty-nine votes are all that is necessary for election, and in the above tables there are one hundred and sixty electoral votes without counting one of the Southern States engaged in the rebellion. In the list of States given, every one, save three in which a State election has been held in the last eighteen months, has gone Democratic. In all, the local elections have exhibited great Democratic gains, sufficient to insure the State for the Democracy this fall. We have not counted Illinois in the list, but the delegates to the convention declared that there was no doubt but Pendleton could carry that State. If it would be certain for Pendleton, then it can be safely counted for Seymour and Blair. In addition to this, the States of Alabama, Georgia, and Mississippi, are certain to give a Democratic majority with any fair chance for voting; this will give 24 more electoral votes and swell the Democratic column to 184. But the Republicans are laboring to exclude the votes of the States of Virginia, Texas, and Mississippi, by legislation in Congress. If the electoral votes of these States are not counted, then there will be in the electoral college 294 votes, and 148 will be all that will be necessary to elect. The Democracy can then lose Ohio, and still secure a majority of the electoral college without counting any from the South; or, by carrying Ohio, they can lose Missouri, Wisconsin, and Kansas, and still elect their ticket without receiving a vote from the South. There is, therefore, every reason for encouragement to the Democracy, and the election of Seymour and Blair may be put down as a certainty.

From the foregoing it will be seen that there is not an earthly doubt of the election of Seymour and Blair, notwithstanding the fact that our adversaries are delighted with the nominations.

No Relief for Labor or Industry: Reaction from Radicalism in New England.

The Rump Congress devoted several hours on the 17th to the discussion of reviving our now all but totally annihilated mercantile marine.

The New England members were particularly lachrymose. They spoke of deserted shipyards, the decay of a once flourishing commerce, and especially the monopoly by foreign ships, of the once valuable passenger traffic which American ships and American vessels participated so freely in days gone by.

Some of them appealed for lower duties on iron, copper, timber, cordage, hemp, and other things that enter into the construction of ships and steamers, on the ground that it would tend to revive ship building, provide employment for hundreds of thousands of American mechanics and workingmen who at present had nothing to do.

It was of no use. The Thieves and Plunderers who had but a day or two before voted to take two millions of dollars from the public treasury, in order to add to the salaries of their male and female parasites in the galleries, voted No! no! no!

Labor and industry begged in vain for a hearing. But the Bondholders, the Big Bounty Robbers, the Shoddy National Bank interest, the Greenback Aristocracy, and the High Tariff swindlers—all of whom go to make up the Radical party proper—were as deaf as adders. They would not hear.

And so ruined commerce must stay ruined a while longer. Prostrate industry must continue prostrate yet a little space. The poor man must be patient, and try and pick up the crumbs that fall from the bloated Radical rich man's table, with as little murmuring as possible. He and all other of the oppressed must bide their time. That time now, it is a consolation to know, is not far off. It will be here in November.

It is a good sign to hear and to see the New England Radicals thus squirm over the desolation and ruin which have overtaken their material interests through the operation of the diabolical policy of which they have themselves been the blind and persistent supporters. If they are now getting their eyes open, and beginning really to repent, so much the better. It will help on the reaction which is bound to turn over the electorial votes of several of the New England States to the Democratic candidate for President.

The Weather and its Fatal Effects.

NEW YORK, July 15.—A list of 45 cases of fatal sunstroke is reported here yesterday, besides 28 cases not fatal.

NEW YORK, July 15.—There were thirty-nine cases of sunstroke reported to-day, of which twelve resulted in death. At 3 o'clock P. M. the thermometer indicated 94. A slight shower at 5 o'clock had hardly any effect in mitigating the heat. Out-door laborers suspended work in many parts of the city during the day. The heat is now moderating, and at 10 o'clock P. M. the thermometer outside of the associated press office stands 84.

NEW YORK, July 15.—Up to midnight nearly one hundred cases of sunstroke have been reported during the past twenty-four hours at police headquarters. An unusually large proportion terminated fatally.

PHILADELPHIA, July 15.—The thermometer reached 98 to-day. There were numerous cases of sunstroke, but very few were fatal. Laborers generally are suspending work.

ROCHESTER, July 15.—There were four cases of sunstroke in this city yesterday, two fatal, thermometer indicated 98 in the shade yesterday afternoon.

BALTIMORE, July 15.—Eight cases of sunstroke have been reported here yesterday, none fatal. The thermometer reached 108 degrees at 1 P. M. yesterday at the American office; at 12 to-day it stood 102 degrees.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 15.—Reports from all points represent the heat as very great, and of a longer duration than was ever before known. Sunstrokes are very numerous.

MONTREAL, July 15.—There were twelve fatal cases of sunstroke yesterday, and four to-day The thermometer marked 105 degrees in the shade.

TORONTO, July 15.—The thermometer stood 97 in the shade to-day. There were eight deaths yesterday and to-day from sunstroke. Telegraphic reports received here from various parts of the dominion indicate that the heat is very intense, the thermometer ranging from 95 to 105 degrees in the shade. An alarmingly large number of deaths from sunstroke are reported.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Warmer than yesterday. The thermometer in the House of Representatives was several degrees higher (or 95), while at other localities in the city at one 1 o'clock, the range was from 100 to 106. There have been several deaths from the effect of the heat.

ST. LOUIS, July 18.—Eleven cases of sunstroke occurred to-day, and most of them will prove fatal. The total number of deaths in this city to day was thirty-seven, a large proportion of which was young children.

CINCINATA, O., July 15.—To-day there were twenty cases of sunstroke, thirteen of which proved fatal. Eight head of fine cattle dropped dead in the Covington stock yards, and three valuable horses in Covington, and five in Cincinati died from the effects of the heat.

NEW YORK, July 16.—Nearly a hundred cases of sun-stroke were reported up to three P. M. to-day, of which about thirty were fatal.

NEW YORK, July 16, midnight.—Since 3 P. M. 25 additional cases of sunstroke are reported at police headquarters, nearly half of which were fatal. Heat now moderating.

PHILADELPHIA, July 16.—Thirteen deaths from heat occurred from midnight up to noon. The thermometer is at 98.

RICHMOND, Va., July 16.—The thermometer in some localities here to-day stood at 107 in the shade. Two deaths occurred from sun-stroke. The heat was so great in Libby prison that the military commander removed the prisoners to the posts from whence they were sent.

MONTREAL, July 16.—To-day the heat is intense, the thermometer indicating 106 degrees. There were ten fatal cases of sun-stroke in this city yesterday, and four thus far to day.

WILMINGTON, N. C., July 16.—The heat is unabated: the thermometer ranges from 97 to 101. Patrick Curran died of sunstroke to-day. The crops of this entire section are suffering greatly from drought. Most serious apprehensions of a crop failure exist among farmers.

MONTREAL, C. E., July 16.—A large number of cases of sunstroke occurred here to-day, and at Toronto also.

PERIODICALS.

THE GALAXY.—We have received The Galaxy for August, which presents the following table of Contents: Kit Grale, a story of true love; A Journey Through Mongolia; A Ghost in a State-Room; Feast; A Few Words About the Nerves; A Tropical Morning at Sea; Saved by a Bullet; Adam and Eve; Literary Transfer Work; Beechdale; Words and Their Uses; Two Artists of Comedy; Drift-wood; Literature and Art; Nebulæ; &c. The subscription price of The Galaxy is $4 a year, invariably in advance. Two copies will be sent for $7; three copies for $10; ten for $30; and one to the getter-up of the club.

DEMOREST'S MONTHLY.—This popular parlor Magazine has won for itself an enviable place in the esteem of American ladies. Its usefullness, the amount furnished for the money, is only equaled by its variety, its high tone, and general literary excellence. In all these respects it is far in advance of its contemporaries, and thoroughly deserves the high favor it has won. It is marvelous that premiums of real and great value can be added to a magazine of such cost and character, for three dollars per year. It only proves what is so often said, that books and newspapers are cheapest and best educators in the world. Address, W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, 473 Broadway, N. Y.

THE LADY'S FRIEND, FOR AUGUST.—"The Soldier's Widow," a finely-executed steel engraving, opens the August number of this charming magazine. Tnen follows the usual large colored steel engraving representing the Parisian Fashions. Then a touching engraving, called "Entering into Life"—followed by numerous engravings of dresses, bonnets, paletots, &c., among which we may especially allude to an equestrain plate, as being well executed. The literary contents of this number are excellent. The "Lady's Friend" is published by Deaaon & Petterson, 319 Walnut street, Philadelphia at $2.50 a year (which also includes a large steel engraving). "The Lady's Friend" and "The Saturday Evening Post," $4.00. Sample copies, 15 cents.

DEMOREST'S YOUNG AMERICA.—This enterprising little Magazine, which has already won so large a share of juvenile favor, enters upon its third year with the November No., and also increases its size nearly one half. This change will effect a great, though doubtless costly improvement, and is due to the success which has attended the two years of its existence, and to the determination of the proprietor to make it acceptable, not only to its present class of young patrons, but also to their older brothers and sisters.—The price will remain unchanged, $1.50 per year. Address, W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, 473 Broadway, N. Y.

GODEY for August has been received. This lady's book maintains its reputation as a favorite. The engravings are superb, the fashion plates artistic and up to the times while the literary contents are not excelled by any journal of the day.

WEIGHING ON THE FARM.—A half bushel measure is considered indispensable by every farmer. He does not sell his potatoes or grain, guessing at the contents of the bin or the pile on the floor, it must be measured. With this instrument at hand, he may know first how much corn is to be fed to the hogs and poultry, how many oats to the horses, how much seed is sown on the land and many other points equally valuable to know. But a good weighing scale is possessed by comparatively few, although its use would in many ways be even more valuable than the half bushel. For instance in selling live stock, the weight is usually estimated by the drover or butcher buying at the farmer's door. Long practice enables the buyer to weigh them very correctly with the eye and thus he has the unexperienced seller at an advantage which he is not slow to use. A good Fairbank's Standard and platform scale would save its cost in a few such transactions. The weight of grain per bushel, the gain of cattle under different systems of feeding, exactly when an animal ceases to increase by feeding and many other important facts can readily be determined by having a good scale. Fairbank Scales have been named in this connection as being entirely reliable having been adopted as the Standard in this and other counties. The above Scale are for sale by Fairbanks, Morse & Co. cor. Wood and second sts., Pittsburgh, Pa.

QUALITY and quantity are the two desirable attendants of "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative." The bottles are neither corked thimbles, nor the preparation itself a worthless compound of deleterious minerals, as has been proved by the Award Committee of the N. H. State Agricultural Society.—Dover Enquirer.

Campaign Gazette!

REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT, Civil Liberty and Constitutional Rights!

NO STANDING ARMY!

NO FREEDMEN'S BUREAU!

NO NEGRO STATES!

White Men Must Rule America!

"Light, more light!" is the startling cry of the honest people groping in the darkness of Radicalism. "Light, more light!" shouts the groaning taxpayer, bending under the load which a Radical Congress has heaped upon him. "Light, more light!" is the pleading cry that comes to us from those who earnestly seek a remedy for the disease that is tugging at the vitals of the nation. Look and ye shall see! Read and ye shall know! The BEDFORD GAZETTE, for the Presidential Campaign, will be a complete compendium of political news, speeches, documents and every thing that pertains to a political canvass in the columns of a weekly newspaper. It will be published from the first day of June until the seventh of November, next, at the following low terms, cash in advance:

One copy,	$ .75
Ten copies,	6.00
Twenty copies,	11.00
Fifty copies,	25.00

Not only should every Democrat have his county newspaper, during the coming campaign, but he should likewise make it a point to furnish his Republican neighbor a copy. This is the plan upon which our opponents have acted for years, and it is about time that Democrats do something of the same sort. NOW, GO TO WORK and put your Democratic newspaper into the hands of every Republican who will read. If you will do this you will accomplish more good in six months than you will by any other means in six years. Democratic politicians, throughout the county, are enabled, by the above low terms, to circulate Democratic newspapers at a very small cost. We appeal to them to see to getting up clubs, and to see to it in time. Now is the time to sow the seed. After a little while the heat of passion and prejudice will beam upon the public mind in all its intense fierceness, and then seed-time will have passed. Friends, let us hear from you!

WE have received from Messrs. S. D. & H. W. Smith, Boston, manufacturers of the AMERICAN ORGANS, the first number of a fine looking sheet the size of our own paper, entitled "The American Organ." It contains valuable information relative to the construction of reed instruments, which all who intend purchasing organs for their homes, or for public places, would do well to familiarize themselves with. It contains also a history of the business, various improvements, and the ideas of leading musical men in regard to reed instruments, which have become so popular for the homes of the people as to fairly rival the pianoforte. A sample copy of this publication will be sent free to any who will address the above named firm.—Mass. Register.

ITS good effects are permanent. In this it differs from all hair dyes. By it luxuriant growth is guaranteed, natural color and gloss are restored. One trial will cause you to say this of Mrs. S. A. Allen's improved (new style) Hair Restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle.) Every Druggist sells it. Price one Dollar. June26m1

POISONING THE BLESSED AIR.—This is what the rivals of PHALON'S new perfume, "FLOR DE MAYO," are doing with their atrocious compounds. The Health Commissioners should look to it. It is their duty to abate the ill-smelling nuisances. Sold by all druggists.

BEN. WADE did not take the oath of office, but that does not prevent his taking numerous other oaths.

—A rifle contest, under the auspices of the Dominion Rifle Association, will take place in Montreal next September, at which prizes to the amount of $10,000 will be competed for.

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR!

The People again in Council!

Eloquent Speech of Col. Filler!

Another Seymour and Blair meeting was held in front of the Mengel House on Saturday evening last. It was a complete success. Notwithstanding the heat, the announcement that Col. Filler was on hand to do battle for the rights of the people, brought a large crowd together. A great many came to again hear Mr. Reynolds, who, we are sorry to say, was prevented by illness from speaking. The meeting was organized by the election of the following officers:—President: JAMES CESSNA, ESQ. (When Mr. Cessna reached the stand, three cheers were proposed and given for the old Democratic war-horse of Cumberland Valley.) Vice Pres'ts, J. E. Wills, Henry Boor, John Henderson, N. N. Koons and Isaac D. Earnest. Secretaries, Edwin Hartley and Henderson Souser. Col. Filler was then loudly called for, and soon presented himself amid the cheers of the crowd, and in one of his happiest efforts he held the audience for more than an hour. He warned the people that, as they loved liberty and the Union, they should do their utmost to prevent the success of that party which, by tyrannical enactments and the power of the military, is endeavoring to wipe out the last vestige of constitutional government in this country. He exposed the insincerity of the Chicago convention, with its double-meaning, patent-extension platform, and administered a scathing rebuke to the party that claims to be the only friend of the soldiers, yet passes no opportunity by to insult and malign them unless they happen to affiliate with the Radicals. The speech was well received and the Colonel was frequently interrupted with rounds of applause. O. E. Shannon, Esq., was the next speaker, and in his usual, felicitous style, gave the people such a speech as they delight in listening to.

On motion of J. W. Dickerson, Esq., the following persons were appointed a committee to draft a constitution and by-laws for a Seymour and Blair club, said committee to report on next Saturday evening: William Hartley, E. F. Kerr, L. Defibaugh, I. Mengel and O. E. Shannon. The meeting adjourned with three cheers for the whole Democratic ticket.

THE Democratic County Committee will meet in the Grand Jury Room, at the Court House in Bedford, at one o'clock, P. M., on Saturday, the 1st of August, next, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for county Auditor in place of Valentine Steckman, Esq., who has declined.

Other important business will be transacted, and a full attendance is requested.

Members of the committee: J. W. Dickerson, Chairman, Bedford Bor.; R. W. Berkstresser, Secretary, Bedford Bor.; Jno. P. Reed, Bedford Bor.; Isaac D. Earnest, Bedford Tp.; D. Rowland, Broad Top; Jeremiah Thompson, Bloody Run; S. H. Feather, Colerain; J. M. Barnet, Coaldale; James Cessna, C. Valley; Joseph Cessna, Harrison; W. Gorsuch, Hopewell; Thompson Burns, Juniata; J. C. Devore, Londonderry; Isaac Kensinger, Liberty; Jacob Barkman, Monroe; John A. Burns, Napier; John H. Barton, E. Providence; Geo. Baughman, W. Providence; S. S. Fluke, Saxton; Geo. Smouse, Jr., Snake Spring; S. W. Statler, Schellsburg; Dr. W. Hall, St. Clair; F. D. Beegle, St. Clairsville; Wm. Adams, Southampton; Josiah Mowry, Union; Daniel Barley, M. Woodbury; Jos. E. Noble, S. Woodbury; D. R. P. Swaney, Woodbury Bor.

J. W. DICKERSON,
Ch'n. Dem. Co. Com.

R. W. BERKSTRESSER, Sec'y.

AT THE SPRINGS.—Ex-Governor Curtin, Judge Grier, Judge Porter, Chambers M'Kibbin, Esq., Superintendent of the Mint at Phila., are at present rusticating at the Bedford Springs. We also notice among the the visitors, that prince of good fellows, Patrick McEvoy, Dr. H. Carpenter, the friend and family physician of late Ex-President Buchanan, and S. H. Reynolds, Esq., who ought to be in Congress in place of that hater of his race, Thad. Stevens. York is represented by that sterling Democrat, J. F. Spangler, Esq.

KEEP COOL.—Since there are so many fatal cases of sun-stroke all over the country, persons cannot be too carful of their habits. Don't get excited, drink as little cold water or stimulants as possible. If you must be in the sun a great deal, place some green leaves or a silk handkerchief in your hat. Either is said to be a preventive and certainly more easily carried than a brick.

W. W. SHUCK and J. W. Rohm are prepared to put up, at the shortest notice, Mason's double-acting force pump. See their advertisement in another column. Every pump is warranted for three years.

Gone crazy—the thermometer.

The next President—Seymour.

General complaint—of the heat.

TROUBLESOME—flies to a lazy person.

A spire that everybody sees—perspire.

Grant has gone West in search of a "policy."

Finished—the new story on the Bedford Hotel.

Beautiful extract—to help a nice young lady out of a mudhole.

PIKED—South Juliana street. Not troubled with dust there.

A Seymour and Blair Club will be organized here next Saturday evening.

WHAT has become of the Grant and Colfax club? We missed that side-show on last Saturday evening.

The heated term is a harvest for the saloonatics. Soda water and ice cool lemonades are in great demand.

A horse belonging to Shoemaker & Barclay dropped dead in the road the other day from the heat.

A certain Radical got enthusiastic enough on the street, the other day, to exclaim, "Raw for Grant and Cold Facts!"

WILKES is betting on the success of Grant. He is backed by the Press correspondent in this place. Heavy, this hot weather.

BE virtuous and you shall be happy. Subscribe for the Gazette, pay for it in advance, and you shall have the printer's blessing.

A Mr. Simmons, of La Crosse, walked eleven hundred miles in twelve days. We have never heard of such walking per-simmons before.

A Greensburg local says that the thermometer there was up to one hundred and forty eight! Mistake some where. Either the "local" or the thermometer must have been "on a high."

THE Radicals are circulating hundreds of copies of the Tribune and Press in this county. Go ahead, boys, you are doing a good work for us. The more that villianous stuff you circulate, the greater our majority will be. Versteh!

NEW GOODS received and opened at the Regulator's every few days—an evidence that Irvine sells the best of goods in his line of business, at short profits.

GO AND SEE the stock of clothing at Berkstressers' before you make purchases elsewhere. Remember, it is now time to close out their summer stock at bargains to purchasers.

EXCHANGE HOTEL HUNTINGDON, PA.—Visitors to Bedford Springs, on their return home via Huntingdon, will find the "Exchange" the place to stop, either for breakfast, tea, or to rest over night. It is now one of the very best kept and furnished hotels in Central Pennsylvania and deserves the patronage of the traveling public.

GIVE IT UP.—The idea of writing interesting locals with the thermometer standing at ten feet in the shade! The very thought makes the perspiration "steal gently o'er us." We are disgusted, demoralized, wilted, "ausgespielt." Excuse us, dear reader. We'll fly to the soda fountain for relief, and take vanilla and cream in ours.

CAMP-MEETING.—A Methodist Episcopal camp meeting will commence August 21st., at Hull's and Deaner's grove, four miles north of Schellsburg, and in Schellsburg charge. An excellent spring near the ground, and lumber for tents convenient. All the adjoining charges are invited to tent with us.

NEWSPAPER PATRONAGE.—Several years of experience in the publishing business, has forced conviction upon us that newspaper patronage is a word of many definitions and that a great majority of mankind are either ignorant of the correct definition or are dishonest, in a strict biblical sense of the word. Newspaper patronage is composed of as many colors as the rainbow, and is changeable as a chameleon.

One man comes in and subscribes for the paper and pays for it in advance, and goes home and reads it with the proud satisfaction that it is his.—He hands in his advertisement, asks the price, and pays for it, and goes to his place of business and reaps the advantage thereof. This is newspaper patronage.

Another man says, 'you may put my name on your books,' and goes off without saying a word about the pay. Time passes on and you want money and ask him to pay what is honestly due you. He flies into a passion, perhaps pays and perhaps not, and orders his paper stopped. This is called newspaper patronage.

Another man has been a subscriber a long time, but has never paid a cent and at last becomes tired of you and wants a change. He thinks he wants a city paper. He tells the postmaster he don't want it, and you get a paper marked 'refused.' But does he call and pay? He wants his money to pay for his city paper. He will pay you after a while he says. But he never does, unless you sue him.—And this, too, is called newspaper patronage.

Another man lives near you—he does not take the paper—he don't like the editor—the paper is too small for him—yet he goes regularly to his neighbor's and reads it, and finds fault with it, and quarrels with the opinions of the editor. Occasionally he sees an article he likes and begs or gives a half dime for the number. This is called newspaper patronage.

Another man takes two or three city papers and cannot afford to take a home paper, but he likes it and comes into the office and begs one whenever he is in town. This, also, is called newspaper patronage.

Another man likes the paper, he takes a copy for himself and family, and pays for it, and does all he can to get new subscribers—he never grumbles, but always has a cheerful word for the editor. If any little item of interest occurs in his neighborhood he informs the editor. This is newspaper patronage.

Another man has a patent and wants you to give it a two dollar notice every week. 'It will be of interest to your readers,' he says; but although, knowing it will benefit him most of all, he does not offer to pay for it. This is called newspaper patronage.

Another man has been taking the paper several years, but has not paid for it, and comes in with a four or five dollar advertisement and asks you to insert it for nothing because he is an old patron of yours. This is called newspaper patronage.

Another man—'a young man about town'—no use of his taking a paper, he gets married and hands in the notice with 'just hand me a dozen copies.' He gets them and when you mention pay he looks surprised—'you surely do not charge for such things! And this si called newspaper patronage.

'Another man,' (bless you, it does us good to see such men) comes in and says: 'The year for which I paid is about to expire. I want to pay for another.' He does so and retires. This is newwspaper patronage.

THERE are two special qualities which determine and fix the superiority of Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S new style imprroved kair restorer or dressing, in one bottle, over all other preparations for the hair. First, the prompt, quick action, great growth, life and vigor that it is sure to give to the hair, never failing, by a few applications, to restore Grey or white hair to its natural color, imparting to the Hair a Delightful aroma, fresh, delicate, and unchangeable in any climate. Second, its easy application without any previous preparation of the Hair; without that sticky and disagreeable sulphur odor found and complained of in all other preparations. It never soils the skin or linen. Ladies will find it a standard Toilet luxury to dress their hair; it retains the Hair in any desired position, and is cooling, healing, and cleansing to the Scalp, removing immediately all scurf, dandruff, and pimples. Price one dollar. Sold by all druggists. 3w

PUMPS! PUMPS!! PUMPS!!!

SYLVESTER G. MASON'S
DOUBLE-ACTING, NON-FREEZING
FORCE PUMP,

Patented August 28th, 1866, and awarded the PREMIUM at the Pennsylvania, Ohio, and New York State Fairs, in 1866.

The advantages claimed for this pump over all other patent pumps are as follows, viz: The valves, are composed entirely of cast iron, rendering it the most durable of any pump yet patented. This pump is so constructed that it never freezes, the water dropping back to the level with the water in the well. It is easily worked, and can be used, by attaching hose, in washing wagons, horses, watering gardens, and in case of fire is of valuable service, as water may be thrown to the distance of from sixty to seventy feet in the air from it by the use of a small section of hose

This valuable pump is now offered to the public at the following prices:

Three-quarter in. Pump.		Inch Pump.
From 7 to 10 ft.	$15 00	From 7 to 10 ft.	$17 00

STAR AGRICULTURAL WORKS. THE ALBANY COTTON GIN MANUFACTURING Co., Albany, N. Y., Manufacturers of General Agricultural Machinery, comprising the celebrated "Star" Threshing Machines; "Star" Railway (or Endless Chain) and Lever Horse Powers; "Star" Cotton Gins and Condensers; Circular Cross-cut Sawmills; Vegetable Cutters; Horse Hay Forks; Corn and Feed Mills; Power Corn Shellers; Dog Powers, &c., &c.

We wish to call the particular attention of Farmers to our celebrated "STAR" THRESHER AND CLEANER, which, as lately improved, we claim it far superior to any other machine now in market. It is compact and easily portable, simple in its construction, and therefore easy to operate by the most inexperienced, and will do its work with marvellous rapidity and perfection, and with comparatively the least demand upon the strength of the animals driving it.

We have made recent improvements in this machine by which we are enabled to thoroughly clean the grain under almost any combination of difficulties, and we are now using an entirely new and effective device for relieving the feeder of dust, thus making the operation of threshing as comfortable and safe as with the ordinary machines it is annoying and frequently destructive of health.

These Machines are made of suitable sizes for our "Star" Railway 2 Horse Power and for our "Star" Lever Powers for 4 and 6 horses.

For sale by our agents and dealers generally. For full particulars, send for our Illustrated Descriptive Circular and Price List. Correspondents will please address The Albany Cotton Gin Manufacturing Co., P. O. Drawer 162, Albany, N. Y.

THE SUCCESS

Of the One DOLLAR Sale a Revolution in Trade.

WE furnish at a uniform price of ONE DOLLAR, such articles as are used by every family, at a less price than they are sold by any wholesale dealer in New York or Boston.

Agents wanted to co-operate with us in carrying out a plan which meets the wants of the million, and in the disposal of a large and varied stock of Dry and Fancy Goods, Silver Plated Ware, Watches, Carpetings, &c. Our terms to Agents are superior to those of any other firm, as our circular will show. Those getting up clubs can secure a piece of Sheeting, Watch, Silk Dress, Shawl, Sewing Machine, &c., &c.,

FREE OF COST.

A check describing an article to be sold for a Dollar, 10 cts.; 20 for $2; 40 for $4; 60 for $6; 100 for $10, sent by mail. Send money by Registered letter. Circulars mailed free to any address. Agents wanted everywhere. Adress

Proof of our statement that we have made

A COMPLETE
REVOLUTION IN TRADE,

can be found in the fact that the immense business we have built up has induced a multitude of small concerns to imitate our club system, and some by advertising the presents they will give to agents, seek, unsuccessfully, to divert some of our business to themselves. We make this announcement simply to inform the public that it will be for their interest to patronize our house, as we still continue to give better Goods and greater inducements to agents than any other concern in the business.

We sell every description of DRY AND FANCY GOODS, PLATED WARE, JEWELRY, WATCHES, SEWING MACHINES, &c., &c, for the uniform price of ONE DOLLAR Circulars sent to any address free. PARKER & CO.,

PROSPECTUS.
THE MORNING PATRIOT.
The office of the late Patriot and Union having passed into the hands of the undersigned, they propose to supply a vacuum that has long existed in the newspaper press of interior Pennsylvania.
From some cause or other the reading masses of the Democratic party of the great interior counties of the State, have been compelled, either to do without the latest news, or patronize journals whose political sentiments were distasteful to them
The MORNING PATRIOT is intended to supply this want.
Its proprietors are determined that no efforts shall be spared, on their part, to make it FULLY EQUAL, as a newspaper, to any of its competitors Whatever the electric wires are able to communicate, up to the hour of going to press, will be furnished in its columns every morning; and its large size will enable it to give quite as much reading matter as any of its contemporaries.
As an advocate of sound political sentiments, favoring no faction, clique or section, but devoting its entire energies to the good of the whole party; as a vehicle of the latest news, and a chronicler of passing events, we are determined that it shall not be excelled; and we confidently appeal to a discriminating public for that appreciation and encouragement which are indispensable to success.

TERMS:

For the Daily, one year in advance	$7 00
For the Daily Six months, in advance	3 50

Single copies, THREE CENTS.

THE WEEKLY PATRIOT.
It is the determination of the proprietors of the PATRIOT to make their weekly journal fully equal to what the "Patriot and Union" was in its palmiest days. It will be one of the largest weekly papers in the State, and special pains will be taken to fill its columns with such reading matter as will be alike interesting and useful to the Farmer, the Mechanic and the Man of Business, and to make it an agreeable and welcome visitor to every family.
Every person should subscribe to the paper printed in his own county, and we do not mean to enter into competition with the local papers of the State. But, many people take their home paper and a city paper in addition. To such we send greeting.

628 HOOP SKIRTS. 628
WM. T. HOPKIN'S "OWN MAKE"
"KEYSTONE SKIRTS,"
are the best and Cheapest Low Priced Hoop Skirts in the market. Trail Skirts, 25 springs, $1.00; 30 springs, $1.20; and 40 springs, $1.45. Plain Skirts, 6 tapes, 20 springs, 86 Cents; 25 sgrings, 95 Cents, 30 springs, $1.15; and 35 springs, $1.25. Warranted in every respect.
"Our Own Make" of "UNION SKIRTS," Eleven Tape Trails, from 20 to 50 springs, $1.20 to $2.50. Plain, Six Tapes 20 to 50 springs, from 95 Cents to $2 00. These Skirts are better than those sold by other establishments as first class goods, and at much lower prices.
"Our Own Make of "CHAMPION SKIRTS" are in every way superior to all other Hoop Skirts before the public, and only have to be examined or worn to convince every one of the fact. Manufactured of the best linen-finished English Steel Springs, very superior tapes, and the style of the metalic fastenings and manner of securing them surpass for durability and excellence any other Skirt in this country, and are lighter, more elastic, will wear longer, give more satisfaction, and are really cheaper than all others. Every lady should try them. They are being sold extensively by Merchants throughout this and the adjoining States at very moderate prices. If you want the best, ask for "Hopkin's Champion Skirt." If you do not find them, get the merchant with whom you deal to order them for you, or come or send direct to us. Merchants will find our different grades of Skirts exactly what they need, and we especially invite them to call and examine our extensive assortment, or send for Wholesale Price List.
To be had at Retail at Manufactory, and of the Retail Trade generally, and at Wholesale of the Manufacturer only, to whom all orders should be addressed. MANUFACTORY and SALESROOM, 728 Arch Street, Between 6th and 7th Sts., Pa.

MEDICAL.—DR. A. S. SMITH, having resumed the Practice of Medicine, solicits a generous share of the patronage of the community. Office in his residence, at St Clairsville.
He would call the attention of the public, and to those more immediately interested to the following: His health being too delicate to bear much of the fatigues and exposures consequent on general practice, he has adopted a speciality in the profession.
Soon after commencing practice, some twenty years since, he was attracted by the almost universality of female complaints, both in the married and single state. Partly from natural inclination, and in order to obtain success in practice, these complaints were made the subject of incessant study. These alterations, displacements and deranged functions of the organs peculiar to the female, are owing to that refined sense of delicacy on the part of the female, who, ignorant of the consequences, prefers to suffer in silence rather than expose her situation. Seldom cured by the general practitioner, who is prevented by this delicacy from acquiring by experience that tact and skill necessary to discriminate the exact change present, and contents himself with prescribing for the deranged functions, or overlooking the cause, simply for attendant nervous disorders, founding his prescriptions on a Plethoric Anaemonic state of the general system and the result is no benefit, as the number of the long suffering females bears ample testimony. Believing that he has, from long and special attention paid to them, acquired that skill in discriminating and experience in treating, he solicits the suffering to give him a call. No charges for consultation or examination. Visits made to all parts of the county.
Applications for medicines can be made in writing by accompanying stamp for return letter.—Medicines sent when desired. TERMS invariably cash for all medicines and instruments.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED. Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impendiments to Marriages, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.
☞Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.
The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
☞This Lecture should be in the hands of overy youth and every man in the land
Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr Culverwell's 'Marriage Guide,' price 25 cents. Address the Publishers, ESTEY'S COTTAGE ORGANS are still ahead of all competitors and stand unrivalled in POWER, PURITY OF TONE and BRILLIANCY, and all other points which go to make a first-class instrument.

The "VOX HUMANA TREMOLO" is the greatest of all modern improvements on reed instruments. It CHARMS and SURPRISES all who hear it, by its wonderful resemblance to the HUMAN VOICE. Do not confound this with the common tremolo in use. It is entirely different, and far superior to any other.
For sale wholesale and retail by

The effect of your "Tremolo" is entirely new to me, and is certainly the best I ever heard.—GEO. W. MORGAN. [The first Organist of America.
No Tremolo has yet been invented that will in any degree compare with this for beauty of effect. In fact, it seems to me to be absolutely perfect.—WM. A. JOHNSON, Pipe Organ Builder.
Estey's Cottage Organs are without a superior for exceedingly quick articulation and round tone—the essential features in instruments of this class.—GEO. JARDINE, Pipe Organ Builder.
The Cotttge Organ is the best of its class I ever saw, and the best adapted for church music of any in use.—C. HEINTZ, Organist, Findlay, O.
I am much pleased with the Cottage Organ which I purchased from you; it combines sweetness and power in an unusual degree, and is quite a favorite in our family circle.—BISHOP SIMPSON.
We know no organs of the class which possess so many valuable qualities.—INDEPENDENT.
For the parlor, its sweetness is remarkable; for the church it has a power more organ-like than anything we have seen.—METHODIST.
Persons wishing to purchase an organ are requested to examine the Estey instruments now in use at the Presbyterian and Episcopal Churches, Bedford, Pa. jul26,'67

COMPOUND BLOOD SEARCHER
This very valuable medicine, which is purely vegetable, has done wonders. It is a never-failing remedy for cleansing the blood. When the blood is pure, disease cannot take hold of the system. I could produce testimonials in regard to what it has effected, but I submit it to the public, guaranteeing that if used according to directions, the result will be GOOD HEALTH. It is my own manufacture.
This medicine will cure Consumption, Dispepsia, Sore Throat, and nine out of ten of all other diseases.
DIRECTIONS FOR USING.—For adults, dose, two tablespoonsfull, three times a day, before meals. Lessen the dose according to constitution.
Price:—Quart bottles, $1.00; Pint bottles, 50 cents. JACOB L. HOOVER,
